Everyone should avail themselves of the opportunity to take a pleasant trip down the St. Clair river and then enjoy a day's recreation on Sag Island by attending the excursion to be given by the M. E. Sunday school on the elegant steamer Omar D. Conger next Tuesday. A special train will leave Brockway Centre at 7 a. m., standard time, stopping at Green's Corners and Fargo, arriving at Port Huron at 10 o'clock, where the boat will be in waiting to take the excursionists on board. About two hundred people attended the picnic given by the children of the Carless school in Brown's woods, Brockway, last Friday afternoon, in honor of their teacher, Miss Lydia Holder, who had just finished a very successful term in that school. After dinner had been partaken of by those present, from a large table provided for the occasion, a good program was presented, consisting of dialogues, recitations, and vocal and instrumental music, and the children acquitted themselves in a manner that was creditable to both themselves and teacher. It is not likely that Miss Holder will again take charge of the school, and she will be much missed by the residents of that district with whom she had become a general favorite. She will spend a week with friends in Brockway Centre before going to her home in Port Huron.

The City of Port Huron will be full of attractions during the next ninety days. Immense excursions from all parts of the country will be going every week. Bannan's great circus and menagerie will exhibit there on the fourth of July, and the usual display of fireworks in the evening. The great Maccabee Jubilee on August 14th will draw a crowd of five or six thousand people. As it is the birth-place and headquarters of that Grand Order, no pains will be spared to make it an imposing affair. It will be immense. The streets and buildings will be gorgeously decorated with K. O. T. M. banners, a dozen or more Brass Bands will furnish music. The great procession will be an imposing sight. The monster excursion given on the lake and river with two steamers lashed together and the beautiful display of fireworks will pay to go miles to see. All the railroads running into Pt. Huron will carry everybody who wishes to go for one fare for the round trip. Take it in, and when you go to Port Huron you will find the great Bee Hive Bazaar with its immense stock of all kinds of goods the great center of attraction, and you must not fail to take that in also. See the new advertisement of the Bee Hive in another part of this paper.

Reform Society.

Last week officer Jas. Shaw was imported from Port Huron to arrest Jackson, which he succeeded in doing, but said officer being induced to imbibed quite freely, it was only a short time before he began to feel rather glorious, and about eight o'clock his eyes were as opaque as a wall-eyed pike. Later on his legs began to fail him and become tangled, so he and Jackson sat down to rest, having traveled the village all afternoon and evening. Said officer then began rehearsing some hard fights he had indulged in at Port Huron and during the conversation fell asleep. Jackson, seeing his opportunity, skipped, and did not turn up until Sunday. Saturday morning the officer, not being able to produce his prisoner for examination, felt rather cheap, and no doubt kicked himself two or three times around the block. We don't believe we have an officer in the village who would be guilty of such an act as above stated. Here is more about this case written from this place to the Port Huron Times:

To the Editor of the Times: James Shaw, a constable of this county, went to Brockway Centre on Friday, the 15th inst., armed with a warrant to arrest one Abner Jackson for the crime of selling liquor without a license. An hour or so after his arrival in the village the constable and his prisoner, Jackson, became gloriously drunk and in this condition they adjourned from the saloon to the sidewalk, and therein broad daylight, and in the presence of the public they continued to drink whiskey in open defiance of the law. Really there is a lesson here somewhere if we could find it. ONE WHO SAW IT.
